

JONATHAN EIG BOOK DISCUSSION

King: A Life

Tuesday, October 1 at 7 p.m. in the Sanctuary
211 Kenilworth Avenue, Kenilworth
All are welcome

Jon will share discoveries in his yearlong's research of Martin Luther King, Jr.'s personal life and work; the King family's reaction to the book; and anecdotes from the last year's national book tour. Sponsored by Kenilworth Union Church and St. Paul AME in Glencoe, this public affairs program will be moderated by the Reverend Dr. William A. Evertsberg. The Book Stall will be on hand to sell signed copies of King: A Life following the program.

Jon's best-selling biography—the first to include recently declassified FBI files—has received broad acclaim from a variety of reviewers. The Washington Post wrote the book is “infused with the narrative energy of a thriller,” and The Economist reviewed that “Eig makes [King's] courage and moral vision seem all the more exceptional for having come from a man with ordinary flaws.”

Attendees must register below for this free event. Street parking is available, and Metra and Pace bus both have stops within three blocks.
